

Debbie's Dream Foundation: Gala raises funds for individuals with stomach cancer

Debbie Zelman and Dale McLean

Alison Frank, back left; Ken Krasnow and Mitch Starr; Blake Starr, front

PHOTOS BY KARA STARZYK

The event is set for 7 p.m. April 18 at Fort Lauderdale Marriott Harbor Beach Resort & Spa, 3030 Holiday Drive.

The evening will begin with a cocktail hour. Dinner, silent and live auctions, awards, dancing and dessert will follow. Auction items will include sports memorabilia, jewelry, fine dining, vacations and travel.

This year's award recipients are Ken Krasnow of CBRE; Stacy Ostrau of Sun Sentinel's Society Scene; Alison Frank Chesney of Alison Frank Photography; Mitch and Blake Starr of Bienenfeld Lasek & Starr; Edith P. Mitchel, MD, FACP of Thomas Jefferson University; and young philanthropists Zachary and Rachel Guttman.

David Kubiiliun, of Kubiiliun & Associates P.A., is chairing the event for the second year in a row. "It is an honor to be a part of such an important foundation that helps to raise money to ultimately find a cure for stomach cancer," Kubiiliun said.

Sponsors for "Dream Makers Gala" include Lilly Oncology, Boston Biomedical, Sheridan, The Tannenbaum Family, Debbie Zelman and Andrew Guttman, and Rick and Rosa Gross. Tickets start at $200 for individual tickets or $1,800 for a table of 10.

For tickets, or more information, visit www.debbiesdream.org/portal/dream-makers-gala or contact Lenna Reed at events@debbiesdream.org or 954-475-1200.

Debbie's Dream Foundation: Curing Stomach Cancer is a nonprofit organization dedicated to raising awareness about stomach cancer, advancing funding for research, and providing education and support internationally to patients, families, and caregivers. DDF seeks as its ultimate goal to make the cure for stomach cancer a reality. Debbie Zelman founded the organization in 2009 after being diagnosed with stage IV stomach cancer.

Shelley Goldstein, left, and Linda Green

The Debbie's Dream Foundation: Curing Stomach Cancer's event, "Dream Makers Gala," takes place April 18 at Harbor Beach Marriott Resort & Spa in Fort Lauderdale.

David Kubiun, left, Jenna Reed and Stuart T. Kapo

Debbie's Dream Foundation: Curing Stomach Cancer will host its sixth annual "Dream Makers Gala."

The event is set for 7 p.m. April 18 at Fort Lauderdale Marriott Harbor Beach Resort & Spa, 3030 Holiday Drive.

The evening will begin with a cocktail hour. Dinner, silent and live auctions, awards, dancing and dessert will follow. Auction items will include sports memorabilia, jewelry, fine dining, vacations and travel.

This year's award recipients are Ken Krasnow of CBRE; Stacy Ostrau of Sun Sentinel's Society Scene; Alison Frank Chesney of Alison Frank Photography; Mitch and Blake Starr of Bienenfeld, Lasek & Starr; Edith P. Mitchel, MD, FACP of Thomas Jefferson University; and young philanthropists Zachary and Rachel Guttman.

David Kubiliun, of Kubiliun & Associates P.A., is chairing the event for the third year in a row. "It is an honor to be a part of such an important foundation that helps to raise money to ultimately find a cure for stomach cancer," Kubiliun said.

Sponsors for "Dream Makers Gala" include Lilly Oncology, Boston Biomedical, Sheridan, The Tannenbaum Family, Debbie Zelman and Andrew Guttman, and Rick and Rosa Gross.

Tickets start at $200 for individual tickets or $1,800 for a table of 10.

For tickets, or more information, visit www.debbiesdream.org/portal/dream-makers-gala or contact Jenna Reed at events@debbiesdream.org or 954-475-1200.

Debbie's Dream Foundation: Curing Stomach Cancer is a nonprofit organization dedicated to raising awareness about stomach cancer, advancing funding for research, and providing education and support internationally to patients, families, and caregivers. DDF seeks as its ultimate goal to make the cure for stomach cancer a reality. Debbie Zelman founded the organization in 2009 after being diagnosed with stage IV stomach cancer.

