THE PHOTO RECORD

(1) Representatives of Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital and its nonprofit foundation recently accepted a check for $5,000 from National Junior Honor Society students at FALCON COVE MIDDLE SCHOOL in Weston. Students raised the money during a two-week period by creating websites, videos, and social media posts, and selling Domino's Pizza coupon cards. They also raised additional money to provide catered lunches to neonatal intensive care and COVID-19 medical teams at the pediatric facility. "(The students) were driven, inspired, and motivated to do something right for the healthcare workers, and they did it selflessly," said Stella Stringer, a Falcon Cove Middle School teacher and National Junior Honor Society advisor. • (2) Nearly 1,000 walkers and runners made strides in the ongoing fight against drunk driving during the 10th Annual Salah Foundation and UKG presents the UBS Financial Services WALK LIKE MADD & MADD DASH FORT LAUDERDALE 5K brought to you by Sheriff's Foundation of Broward County and Memorial Healthcare System. Together, participants raised more than $215,000. (3) DEBBIE'S DREAM FOUNDATION: CURING STOMACH CANCER AND BROWARD COUNTY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION hosted their 1st Collaborative Golf Tournament on April 23rd at the Jacaranda Country Club, raising nearly $23,000 for stomach cancer research and the support of patients and families worldwide. • (4) The 34th annual FHVLEGAL.COM ROTARY GOLF CLASSIC, held on April 30th at The Club at Weston Hills, raised nearly $150,000 for the Rotary Club of Weston's college scholarships, presented to outstanding seniors from Cypress Bay High School, Western High School, The Sagemont School, and HANDY. • (5) On May 8th, the Weston Music Society presented STUDENT MUSICIANS at Weston Town Center. Students from Cypress Bay and Western high schools, and Tequesta Trace middle schools – including Groove Therapy, shown here – performed in a variety of styles. • (6) On May 8th, friends of the JACK & JILL CENTER hosted the 16th Annual MEDNAX Flip Flops on the Docks presented by MOSS at the newly renovated Lauderdale Yacht Club. More than 400 guests attended the event that raised $367,000 for scholarships benefiting low-income, working families in the community. • (7) On May 14th, the BROWARD EDUCATION FOUNDATION hosted BrightStar Credit Union's "Escape To Tropical Paradise" at the Harbor Beach Marriott in Fort Lauderdale. Each year, the Foundation contributes more than $3 million to Broward County schools, serving as the catalyst for educational excellence. • (8) On April 9th, THE SAGEMONT SCHOOL hosted a pre-recorded, drive-in benefit concert to raise money for LifeNet4Families, a local organization that provides a gateway to stability for people in Broward County experiencing hunger, homelessness, and poverty. (9-12) The day before Mother's Day, the City of Cooper City held a MOTHER-DAUGHTER "PAINT IN THE PARK" event near City Hall, helping to cement a bond that spans generations.
